HEIECK AND MORAN WILL BUILD IN ALBANY ON EAST SHORE

James R. Williams, President of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, announced at the Board Meeting held November 13 that a new industry has been obtained for Albany. Heieck and Moran, Wholesale Plumbing, Heating and Ventilating Supply Company, with branches in Modesto, Concord, Vallejo, Oakland, San Francisco, Hayward, San Carlos, Fresno, Sacramento and Chico, would erect a 14,000 square foot building on property leased from Southern Pacific Company on East Shore Highway. They expect to employ 5 to 12 people.

The firm has applied to the City for a Use Permit and as soon as this is approved they plan to start building.

President Williams informed the Board that the Southern Pacific Company was negotiating with other firms for establishing plants in this locality.

Other matters discussed at the meeting were Christmas Street Decorations, and plans are progressing to have the decorations installed the first week in December.

Director Kenneth Forry presented a plan to hold a retail promotion early in May, suggesting the name "Student Art Festival and Bazaar." President Williams appointed the following committee to work out details and report back at the December Board Meeting: John Pleich, Kenneth Forry, H. F. Call and William Johnson, President of Junior Chamber.

Pursel Is Guest Speaker At Meeting Of AHTA

The second regular meeting of the AHTA was held in the Banquet Room at Serb's Restaurant, 1045 San Pablo Avenue. Approximately 30 members and guests were present.

The AHTA was very fortunate to have as its guest speaker for the evening Mr. Kent Pursel, Ala-ameda County Supervisor, 4th district and Finance Committee Chairman. His topic was "Is it for the Welfare of All?" Supervisor Pursel explained how the $93,000,000 County Budget will be spent. Of this $93,000,000 $65,000,000 will be spent on Welfare. He discussed a Super-Metropolitan government which, at the present time is in the making, and which could become a reality if the people do not take more interest in civic affairs. He sincerely stressed the importance of organizations such as the AHTA, and stated they should continue to grow stronger and inform their City Council and County Supervisors of the things they feel are important to their community.

The membership was pleased

YOU ASKED

HOW ALBANY VOTED

The election is over, an occasional smudged sticker of Brown or Nixon can still be seen on an automobile bumper, and the tally of votes of Alameda County and the State of California have been published and analyzed. But how did the City of Albany vote?

There are approximately 9100 voters in Albany. Of these, 7097 residents exercised their voting privilege. The Albany vote was as follows: For Governor: Ed-

Due to limited space, the results of all issues on the ballot are not listed. Nor is this an official tally. A Times representative, with the assistance of Mrs.

ty Courthouse and copied the predict results and tallied them. The report was compiled because of telephone requests to the Albany

THE ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL DADS CLUB recently held its Fifth Annual Sports Nite at the Albany High School Cafeteria.
Honored guests included Principal Harry Price, Football Coach Bill Savage and Police Inspector Art Smith. A group of more than 60 people (including members of the Albany High School football team) enjoyed a film of the 49er Highlights. President Mark Credwood presided; chairman was Edon Wolf; refreshment committee included George Crozier, Al Willing and Paul Calder-head.

COUNCIL WILL OPPOSE RAPID TRANSIT WITH ANY LEGAL MEANS

The Albany City Council went on record at the Albany City Council meeting November 13 to support any legal procedure to defeat the present Rapid Transit program. The Rapid Transit Committee, chaired by Attorney Barry Runnion, was directed to continue their study of the issue and to cooperate with any other group in bringing to the attention of the counties involved the impact of a culmination of the proposed plan.

Vice-mayor Lewis Howell, in speaking on the issue, said this was an example of "why we shy away from Bay Area Government." It is too easy, he said, to be gobbled up by larger municipalities. "If there is any legal way to stop this, we should do it." He added the statement that if this is legalized for a Transit bond issue, it should also be permitted for the schools.

Councilman George Hein added that Albany should go along with any legal procedures to withdraw from the Transit District.

On a less serious note, the Council voted to grant Daughtry-Leatherman Developers' request that the hemlock tree in front of the premises at 928 Adams Street be permitted to remain and that their $100 bond be returned. Even though the tree limits maneuvering room, thereby cutting down the 1-1 parking, one tenant has a Volkswagen and parking is no problem. The tree, they felt, is old and its beauty should be retained. City Administrator James Turner reminded the Council that they would be setting a precedent, but Councilman Hein went ahead with the motion, adding: "No disrespect to our City Administrator." How-ell's second was in the form of a quotation: "Woodman, spare that tree." On the question, Councilman Joseph Egenberger told the Council that he took his oversized station wagon over to the questioned space and going north on Adams angled slowly. "I did not want to knock down the tree," into the space. "It was a close fit, but I did it." The motion was passed unanimously and the hemlock tree will remain.

In spite of the problem of precedent, Turner looked well pleased with the decision.

In other Council business, Councilman Joe Carlevaro appointed Delmar Wisenor, 819 Talbot, a member of the Park and Recreation Commission.

Vice-mayor Howell introduced Assemblyman Byron Rumford and he made a brief statement before the adjournment of the meeting. Said Rumford: "I wish to acknowledge the vote I received and assure you that if I can be of any assistance, I am ready for service."

Unite With Your Neighbors On The Christmas Trail!

The time has come again to plan the outdoor Christmas Decorations for your home. Ila Mae Wilson, publisher of the Albany Times, and May Ellis Olson, co-owner of the Ellis-Olson Mortuary, are in the midst of plans for the fourth annual "Christmas Home Decoration Contest".

They have announced a new set of rules for 1962. This year there will be judging in two divisions. Those who have been major winners in the past two years (not honorable mention) will be one division, with three handsome trophies as the awards.

All other entries will be included in the second division, with cash and valuable prizes as the awards. Miss Wilson and Mrs.
Ellis-Olson felt that planning entries in this way would give more home-owners an opportunity to win.

Judging will be on Sunday, December 16, starting at 7 p.m.
Deadline for entries will be Friday, December 14. An official entry blank must be signed and delivered or mailed to the Albany Times or Ellis-Olson Mortuary by December 14, at 5 p.m. The outdoor decorations must be symbolic of Christmas and may tie in with indoor or window decorations.

There will be six winning categories of cash and valuable prizes in the second division, those who have not won a major award in the past two years.

There will be three handsome trophies in the first division, awarded to those who have won a major prize in the past two years.

BRaille TYPEWRITER AWARDED BY LIONS

Ten-year-old Jane Fagerlund, blind from birth, was given a Braille typewriter by the Albany Lions Club at its regular meeting on Thursday, November 15. Jane, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Fagerlund of 632 Stannage Street, Albany, is enrolled for the first time, following five years of schooling at the State School for the Blind in Minnesota, in an integrated situation. She, with other blind children, are placed with sighted children at Jefferson School, Berkeley, in the classroom, on the school grounds, and in the lunchroom. These blind students, however, do have what is known as a resource room with a teacher who is especially trained in teaching the blind. Here they spend a part of each day learning to read and write Braille, with ease and speed, and to type. Jane is the first Albany youngster who has enrolled in this special program that is provided by Berkeley for sightless children from San Francisco, Richmond, San Pablo, Oakland and Piedmont, as well as Berkeley and Albany. The youngsters are transported by taxis to the school, and each school district pays part of the cost of this transportation and part is paid by the State. Berkeley receives a special apportionment that covers the excess cost of providing an education for these handicapped children.

There is, according to Mrs. Roberta Gertner, Supervisor of Special Classes for the Berkeley City Schools, a growing tendency to remove children from classes composed entirely of the blind and to assimilate them in normal classroom situations, supplemented by specialized training through a qualified resource teacher.

The recent growth of this practice is well illustrated when one realizes that two Berkeley elementary schools, Jefferson and Emerson, Garfield Junior High, and Berkeley High School together offer a program for the sightless that provides for them an education from kindergarten through the 12th grade.

McMartin Wins Award From Greyhound Bus

Awards testifying to the safe driving achievement of Greyhound driver James D. McMartin, 1015 M. Lane Avenue, Albany, have been authorized by S. A. Osman, Director of Safety for Greyhound's 11-state western division.

The awards mark ten years of driving without a recorded accident for McMartin, during which he has safely piloted his passengers over an estimated 750,000 miles of western highway. They take the form of a highly-prized Safety Award Certificate, shoulder insignia indicating his years of safe driving, and the gift of a gold watch.

McMartin will be presented with his awards at a forthcoming safety meeting of Greyhound drivers operating in this area.

Mothersingers Prepare For Xmas Season

The Berkeley-Albany Women's Chorus had its first public appearance of the season on November 13 at 1:30 p.m. at King's Daughters' Home, 3900 Broadway, Oakland.

This Mothersingers group is looking forward to a busy calendar of performances during the Christmas season when they will present F. E. Waring's presentation of "The Song of Christmas" for various church, PTA and civic groups.

William M. Phillips, director, invites women who enjoy singing to join this group. No auditions are required and nursery care is provided. Rehearsals are held every Thursday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the Garfield Junior High School auditorium at Ross and Josephine Streets.

Persons may visit this Berkeley Evening School adult class once before enrolling.

The bride-elect graduated from Albany High School and is attending Heald's Business College in Oakland.

Harolds Club, now celebrating its 26th year of operation, is one of the oldest casinos in Reno. Smith and his son, Harold Sr., opened the 24-hour establishment in 1935 and it has expanded with the city, now a favorite tourist area.

The 74-year-old philanthropist is still an active businessman and has a backlog of humorous tales which have unfolded at Harolds Club included in his talk.

BACHMAN AND REYNOLDS MAKE EAGLE RANK AT TROOP 19 CEREMONY

Two new Eagles Scouts were invested by Berkeley Troop 19, BSA, at its Court of Honor, Saturday, November 17, 1962.

Ken Bachman and Bill Reynolds, both of the Senior Patrol, received the top scouting honor at the Camp Hermes Hall. Every Scouting rank was represented by at least one Scout who had advanced since the last Court of Honor. A notable feature of the Court was the advancement of the three Reynolds brothers. Joining Bill were Steve as a Life Scout and Roger, who moved up to First Class.

Bill Rodda earned his Star Scout badge. Alan Arledge now is a First Class Scout. Kent Ramsey and Jim Schaeffer reached Second Class, and Ned Niccolles and Greg King made Tenderfoot.

Two features of the Troop 19 Courts of Honor are noteworthy. The candlelight ritual and natural-log candleholder have been in use for over 30 years. The service, originated by Troop 19, is now in use by other Bay Area troops. Two of the Scouts who composed the service are now in the Troop 19 Dads Club.

Each mother receives a bracelet charm, a miniature of her son's new badge of rank. The mothers of Ken Bachman and Bill Reynolds now have a full set. The evening ended with refreshments provided by the Troop 19 Mothers' Club.

ADDITION OF A NINE-HOLE GOLF COURSE to the existing 18-hole golfing facilities at Regional Park is now under consideration by the East Bay Regional Park Board. The board, which met last week, approved, this week, a recommendation by William Penn Matt, general manager, to spend $100,000 on a development study and preliminary survey by Robert G. of Lafayette, prominent golf course architect.

I would like to thank all the people who gave of their time and money to help the Citizens Against Proposition "A".
I know they must feel as disappointed as we on the committee that all our work was just not enough. It is hard to lose by such a small margin — we all feel that we should have expended just a little more effort towards victory.

Title of Muscular Man Won by Alan Abert

Mr. Alan Abert, a real muscular marvel, who trains at the Albany Gym, won the Most Muscular Man in Western America title.

The contest was held in San Francisco before a large crowd of weight lifting and body building enthusiasts who were all in agreement with the popular decision. Alan's physique not only impressed the judges from the muscular standpoint but also because of his extraordinary shape and symmetry. Alan says his interests in conditioning with weights is not just to win contests but rather a means to better health and a stimulant to increased energy and drive.

Alan, a professional sculptor and artist, believes that everyone should follow some type of conditioning program. People, he says, are growing old without realizing a fraction of their physical potential.

Eyring Speaks To Board On African Freedom Bid

EYRING SPEAKS — 24 ..

Many African nations will encounter considerable difficulty in running their own affairs once they are given their freedom, according to Berkeley Realtor Joseph Eyring, said today.

"Some 20 African nations already have attained their freedom, and another eight or ten probably will do so in the future," he said in his talk to members of the Berkeley Realty Board.

"But there are many difficulties lie ahead for those seeking their freedom. One big problem is that the people are not educated enough to take over for themselves.

"Another is the serious strife that already exists among tribes. And more problems will be encountered as more and more European trained civil servants and ranchers leave Africa — which already is happening."

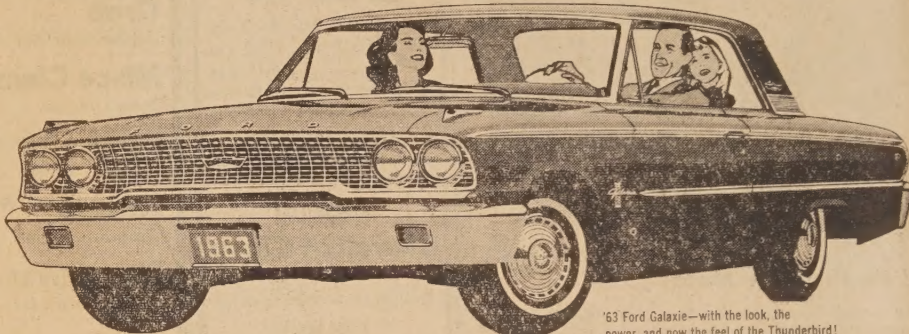

Eyring recently returned from a round-the-world trip with most of his time spent in Africa. The local realtor, who has offices at 1631 Solano Ave., who that in Kenya alone 54,000 were accomplished 80 per cent of the country's production.

Drivers under 25 years of age were involved in more than 10 per cent of the fatal accidents in 1961, reports the National Automobile Club.

Here's what it does for the ride: the road turns to Thunderbird velvet . . . cornering is sure and solid . . . jolts disappear—only the wheels feel the bumps! Spend 10 minutes proving it yourself—drive a 1963 Galaxie today.

New Members Join Boys Scouts In 'Go' Roundup

Mt. Diablo Boy Scout Council's "GO" Roundup was reported to be in high momentum by John Athanson, Lafayette, chairman of the Council's Roundup Committee, as he pointed out that during the last 30 days 1100 new members have joined the 441 units located in Berkeley, Albany and all of Contra Costa County. Athanson said that the new "GO" Roundup program seeks to welcome into Scouting's ranks all the boys who want to become members.

Local schools, he reported, are giving top cooperation. They have been furnishing names and addresses of boys of the various Scout age levels. Cub Scouting is for boys 8, 9, and 10 years of age. Boy Scouting starts at 11 and Exploring begins at the high school age level.

Local Scouting units have decided each Scout to find one neighborhood boy, invite him to a unit meeting, and call for him when the meeting is to be held.
